

Charles "Chuck" Poppler

November 5, 1945 - May 23, 2026

Charles R. (Chuck) Poppler

Age 80, passed away peacefully May 23, 2026. Previously of Eden Prairie, lately Norwood Young America. Preceded in death by parents (Vincent and Helen Poppler) and sister (Barbara Munson). Survived by wife, Pauline; brother, Vincent (Judy); 5 children Lora (Jeff) Alexander, Amy (Nathan) Running, Mathew (Christi) Poppler, Randy (Carolyn) Cline, Julie (Rob) Miller and 9 grandchildren (Jamie, Emily, Serena, Riley, Alex, Parker, Jaxson, Lily, Max). After moving on from youthful ambitions as a rock drummer, Chuck's primary career was in civil engineering, culminating as president/CEO of RLK. He was an accomplished portrait photographer and took pride in documenting family events to high professional standards. In addition to his business successes, he was a devoted husband, father and grandfather, a reliable fixture at all of his grandchildren's sporting and school events. He held a lifelong love of Christmas, investing considerable time and resources into transforming his home into an annual holiday wonderland. Gathering Saturday, May 30 at 10:00 AM St. Alban's at 6716 Gleason Road, Edina. Services follow at 11:00 AM. Preferred memorials include St. Albans, St. Gertrude's Rehab, Prairie Heights Memory Care, and the Lewy Body Dementia Association (www.LBDA.org).
