Schuler, Charles Scott 7-8-30 to 8-24-15 A man of many names. When Alzheimer's disease came to Chuck Schuler, he renamed himself "Carlos" and wanted his care providers to refer to him as "Carlos" as well. To his beloved, his wife Susan of 56 1/2 years, he was her "Chuck". To his Children: Karen Hansen, Kathy Jones and David Schuler it was just simply "Dad". To son-in-law Jeff Jones it was "Mr Schuler", to son-in-law Gary Hansen & daughter-in-law Denice Schuler, "Chuck." To his Grandchildren: Alli (Duncan), Kip (Candice), Ben, Charlie (Karolina), Taylor (Joel) and Amalie, he was "Grampa Chuck" and great-granddaughter Rose, "da-da". Sister Betty and husband John Altheide affectionately called him "brother." Many nieces and nephews and cousins, who referred to him as "Uncle Chuck". To the City of Bloomington as "Councilman Schuler", he helped the City dream and build the MOA. To his SWHS buddies, who referred to themselves as the "Southwest Mafia", he was known as "Charlie." His lifelong friends from Psi Upsilon Fraternity at the U of M also called him "Charlie". All of those who know and love him - we together call him "Devoted follower of Jesus, Committed Husband, Loving Father, Faithful friend." And all God's people said "Amen."
