“ My father was the best man i ever knew. He was, as far as I am concerned, the perfect example, of what a real man was. He was strong, he was honest, he was trustworthy, and he was extremely loyal. He was a person with great morals and values, his word was golden. He not only talked the talk, but he walked the walk. HE WOULD NEVER ASK ANYTHING FROM YOU, THAT HE HIMSELF WOULDN'T DO. There wasn't a mean bone in his body. He loved and respected his mother, and mother and father in-law. He as a giving man. I was extremely blessed to have him as my father. I love you daddy

“ I have had VERY few role models, or men that I looked up to as an example what it means to be a man. Mr Scott was one of those men. His actions spoke much louder than his words. He showed me what it looks like to love your family threw the good times and bad. He showed me what it looks like to be a man of integrity. To be kind and accepting of others around him. I was learning things from his example and didn't even realize he was teaching me until I they became important to me later on in my life. I have failed him and his family many times over the 30+ years i have known them, yet he has always been understanding and accepting of me. I have had my short comings to say the least, but when I got it back together Mr Scott took the time to tell me he noticed and even told me he was proud of me. For that I will be forever grateful. I can only hope to live out these lessons half as well as he did. Thank you Mr Scott, I will never forget you - Rick Kitzrow

“ I didn't know Charles, but he had to have been one amazing guy! To have raised a lady as great as Lori who was able to in turn raise a wonderful young lady as caring as Cassi. I am sorry for your loss. May you and your family find comfort in God.

“ A eulogy for my Papa.. <3

To me, he was the living embodiment of compassion and love. In a world where everywhere I turned there was an irresponsible male figure filled with hatred and contempt, he was my saving grace.

When all else was lost, I turned to him. I knew my grandpa as pure and valiant and I don't care if beautiful isn't a word to describe a man-he was beautiful.I never felt stupid or wrong in his eyes. He was the kindest man I've ever met. He was my Papa.. I will think about you everyday and I love you more than I could ever say.

“ When I first met Papa he welcomed me with open arms and accepted me and kept telling me that I made his grandson very happy and that he hasn't seen him happy in a long time which made him happy. Then when Brayden was born he instantly loved him and enjoyed times with him. I remember one day papa called me to check in and before he hung up he said that he loved me and my little boy to and to make sure I took good care of him. Papa shared the chewbaca noise with bobby now bobby shares it with brayden. I know he will watch over me and my boys and we will tell brayden all about how great a man papa was. Thank you for blessing me with the chance to have you in my life and my sons. We love you to the moon and back <3

“ Oh boy...where to begin? So many fond memories of Papa I can't pick just one. SO what I will say is that I am so grateful that he accepted me and loved me as one of his own. He was like my 2nd dad...never judged only loved and accepted. I do believe that between him and my own dad, they taught me how real men should act and treat the women in their lives and treat their families. he was part of my knowing that I deserved to love and to be loved., that I deserved to never settle for anything less. Maybe not such a good thing but I do think part of the reason I've never been married is because between him and my own father, I've never met anyone that can compare with either. Hard acts to follow for sure Thank you papa for that gift. You will always be special to my heart.

“ the first time we meet he accepted me . I thank him for that. all the time we watched TV together. The walks at the mall. The laughs the joke and the love gave me. My happiest memories are ,when he would come over and sit with me when I had my lung surgery. that meant the world to me. I will never forget you and what you have done for me and I thank you for that. Your like a father me .
