Charlie worked as Maintenance/Janitorial services at the Minneapolis VA hospital until he retired, he enjoyed fishing, listening to music and dancing. His past years were spent spending time with his loved ones, Sunday dinners & holidays with his family asking for a taste of some type of food/drink that he knew was forbidden from diet. Long conversations with his grandson, talk of back in his days, witty remarks to those who entered the room and laughter while watching the smaller grandchildren play will forever be the memories held in our hearts.
