“ To the Ness Family,

I just wanted to let you know how BEAUTIFUL your service to your Mother was yesterday. It was so touching to see how close all of you are. We were truly blessed to have know Char. She always had a smile and a wave for me in the morning on my way to work. My girls could sit for hours on the picnic bench and talk to your Mother. It was nice to know that she truly enjoyed everyone around her.

She will be greatly miss from the Heather street gatherings!

Take care and God bless all of you!!

“ Char was such a "lady of Grace". She really was full of grace which means "full of God" and God's love. She was always ready to listen to how you were and always put her own troubles aside while she talked to you. Char entered my life many years ago and after I made my TEC she was even more endeared to me. She always had a hug and a smile every Sunday after Mass.

She and her family were so aware of the needs of others and so happy to sponsor one of our Epiphany families at Christmas. Even though her heart was weak in a physical manner, it was so strong in the way she lived her life. She lived her faith by reaching out to others less fortunate and in the way she raised her family.

She lived the Prayer of St. Francis daily, for she was a true instrument of peace, pardon, faith, hope, light and joy.

Char added a special dimension to my life and the lives of all who she came in contact with. I extend my deepest sympathy to her family.

“ Carol, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your wonderful caring mother. It is for your entire family that my heart bleeds. When I heard of your mother's passing the Lord immediately reminded me of John 14:1-4. "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going"

Carol, I am confident that your mother knew the way to her Heavenly Father's house the instant she drew in her last breath and has now safely arrived into the arms of her Savior. I can almost imagine the AWESOME place Jesus has prepared for your mother; a place where she and Danny are celebrating while patiently awaiting the arrival of the rest of the Ness family (and hopefully friends too!!!)

“ Myles, Sue & Tim, Tim and Eileen, Mike and Missy, Liz and Bill, Theresa and Ken, Patty and Scott, Kathy and Mike, and Carol and Daryl,

I was very sad to hear of Charlotte's passing. She was a wonderful lady: loving and stern, generous and disciplined, caring and kind.

Some of my earliest and fondest memories as a child include the Ness family. It is only now as a father myself that I am able to appreciate and admire the example Charlotte provided us all: Taking care of Grandpa in his old age and surrounding him with the love of his family, Allowing the children of the neighborhood to play unfettered in the sand box out front, those huge roasters full of popcorn on the picnic table shared liberally, Plums for everyone, Sue helping us make a X-Mas table cloth for my parents while she baby sat for us, 7 layer bars, celebrating high school graduations with gusto.

Her tenacity in the face of adversity is also legendary. Strong and committed, Charlotte taught us all how to give, but to never give up.

I could go on and on.

The point is, your Wife's (or Mom's) impact on me, and therefore my family, has been profound, and something I will forever appreciate. I am certain that I am not the only one to feel this way.

The best way I can think of to honor her memory will be to try my best to emulate her loving example. With any luck, many people you will never meet will enjoy the benefit of her example.

Molly and my prayers are with you guys.

All our Love,

Tom and Molly Copa

“ To the "Mess of Ness's"

I wish I had the words to make your pain and sadness go away. In time it is my hope you will find the hurt replaced with fond memories. If ever you need reminding I am here and I have LOTS of them. Your wife/mom was always such an inspiration with words.. she always knew what to say to make everything feel better. I feel blessed for having had the opportunity to know her well. She was like a second "mom" to me and I will miss her dearly.....

From my heart to God and back to each and everyone of you.
