

Charlotte Jean Miller

January 17, 1944 - January 21, 2025

Charlotte was born on Jan. 17 1944 to Ewald and Alma Wolter. She lived on the farm near Truman until going to college at Concordia St. Paul for teaching. She taught 1 year. She married Robert W. Miller January 3rd 1970 through computer dating. They had 2 sons Jason and Matthew. They lived in Crystal until 2000. Then they moved to the townhome in Plymouth. Charlotte's jobs were helping out in her sons schools. Working medical records at North Clinic in Robbinsdale. Then working in a hotel gift shop for years. That gift shop moved to the interchange tower on Shelard Parkway. That gift shop was a victim of the pandemic. She loved bowling, making quilts. She loved drinking coffee. She was a member of the choir, altar guild LWML{LUTHERAN WOMANS MISSIONARY LEAGUE}. She went to many state and national conventions. The ones preceded in death to her are Parents Ewald and Alma Wolter, Husband Robert W. Miller, Son Matthew D. Miller and Sister Geraldine Henning. She is survived by Son Jason W. Miller, Brother inlaw Jim Henning, 3 Nephews Tim Henning, John Henning, and Doug Henning, many cousins and lots of friends. REST IN PEACE CHARLOTTE

“ Charlotte was a dear woman. She was one of the first members at Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church to welcome me and invite me to the LWMI meetings. She was so very kind and I appreciated her friendship. Jeanne Gelle

“ St. John writes, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. "Blessed indeed", says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!" Revelation 14:13

*Aunt Charlotte was a faithful sponsor for me throughout my life and ministry, always remembering me in her prayers and support. Let her life of service and devotion be in all of us as we continue to love and serve God and our neighbors!
Peace be with you Jason!*

“ Jason, may the peace that Christ's death and resurrection alone brings be with you at this difficult time. Your Mom was a good friend and classmate of Janice both in high school and college. Janice was a bride's matron at your parents wedding. Howard played the organ for the wedding. Be assured that our prayer are being prayed on behalf of you and your family. Love in Christ, Janice and Howard Shane.
