

Charlotte Severson Oliver

December 13, 1930 - January 26, 2026

Charlotte S. Oliver died on January 26, 2026 at her residence in the Waters of Excelsior. She was born on December 13, 1930 to Monroe Severson and Charlotte Sprute Severson in Minneapolis. She attended William Woods College and graduated from the University of Minnesota. After a few years in San Francisco, she returned to Minneapolis, where she married Edward C. Oliver in September of 1956. She and Ed had three sons - Charles, Andrew, and Peter. Charlotte focused her vast energies primarily on her family, but she also worked off and on in women's retail. She was a frequent volunteer in various civic capacities, such as voting monitor, and assistant at the Hope Chest, and Boys and Girls Club. Charlotte was an avid tennis player, gardener, and bridge player. She relished travel and fondly remembered her trips to Europe, especially hiking in Norway, and to the Far East. Finally, she absolutely loved music, a love which she passed on to her children. Charlotte is survived by her three sons - Charles, Andrew, and Peter and two grandchildren - Casimir and Daniela. She was preceded in death by her parents - Monroe and Charlotte - and two siblings - Fred and Katherine (her twin.) Visitation will be on Sunday February 8 from 10:00am to 12:00pm at Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel, 5000 West 50th & Highway 100, Edina. Interment will take place on Monday February 9 at 2:00pm in the Groveland Cemetery on Minnetonka Boulevard. In place of flowers, the family asks that you give a donation to the Friends of the Mississippi River.

“ I am so sorry of your loss Charlie and family. I lost my dad the same week. So difficult. I remember so many great memories of your hospitality in Deephaven. From the plunges into the lake to skating on top of the frozen ice...peace be with you all..
