

Charlotte B. Sanford

August 23, 1929 - May 25, 2020

Sanford, Charlotte M. Belina Charlotte Myrtle Belina Sanford, born in Owatonna MN to Myrtle (Stuelpnagel) Belina and Charles Belina, Aug 23, 1929, enjoyed a full life as devoted daughter, fun seeking and caring friend, supportive and generous aunt, loving sister, wise and treasured wife, and highly respected Registered nurse, dying May 25, 2020 of declining health from advanced age. Charlotte loved a good party of family, friends and a great brandy Manhattan. She married Roy Sanford in 1955 after meeting him at a dance. She was a promoter of reading, education, continued learning, science, architecture and wilderness preservation. Her education as RN from the Eitel Hospital Nursing Program served her well, and colleagues noted she was sought for her medical knowledge by nurses as well as physicians. She is preceded in death by her parents, husband Roy, sister Barbara Belina Seykora (Don) and brother David Belina (Patti). She is survived by sister Joanne Belina Hollinger, (Bob), cousin, Helen Ann Fisher Strong, (Dan), as well as nieces and nephews. Services will be conducted outdoors at her gravesite at Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, Monday, June 1 at 2:30. Attendees are advised to bring a portable chair, are welcome to share memories and requested to wear a face mask out of concern for others present. Memorials are preferred to Friends of Hennepin Library. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
