“ Dear Jan, Dorothy & Mary Lynn, I am so glad I was able to come to the memorial for your Mom Char. I have never seen such a more loving celebration of someones life that Pastor Chris delivered with such passion. I can never thank her enough for the love and support she gave my family over 20 years ago. I know the card games are going in heaven :) . May God continue to bless you all, Dawn Kanarski

“ Dearest Jan, Chris, kids and families, Please accept our sincere condolences and deepest sympathies on the death of mom, grandmother and great grandmother (including inlaw). We will miss her great smile as she pushed her walking assistant through the crowd in the narthex on her way to her seat in the Lords house. She really had a love for the Lord and it was wonderful that she could come to church even when it was not easy for her. May the time of the year and the celebration of the birth of our Savior along with all the family being home help to comfort each of you as we all look forward to that final reunion when the feast will never end. May God bless each of you and hold you in His loving arms as He provides an extra measure of His comfort to you all.
