

Charlotte Margaret Sween

May 16, 1939 - May 2, 2021

Charlotte M. Sween of Plymouth, MN born May 16, 1939, Sidney, MT, died May 2, 2021, Plymouth MN. Preceded in death by husband Duane; son Michael; parents Torberg and Aziel Nordmark; brothers Hans, Adolph and Paul Nordmark and sister Mary Garbe.

Survived by daughter Laurie (Dan) Ibister; son Mark Sween; grandsons Lucas Ibister and Collin Sween; granddaughter Stephanie Sween; sisters Hannah Ofsthun and Ellen (Kermit) Bratholt; brothers Tory (Debbie) Nordmark and Vernon (Josette) Nordmark; and many nieces and nephews.

Charlotte's childhood years were spent in Montana, Alberta and North Dakota. She attended the University of MN, where she met Duane. Following their marriage in 1959, they spent two years in Germany where Duane was an army dentist. Upon their return to the United States they settled in Minneapolis where Charlotte lived for the remaining years of her life. It was here while raising her family that she returned to school and completed a bachelor's degree in education at Augsburg College. Charlotte enjoyed being a church organist for ten years, traveling, golfing, entertaining family and friends and time spent tending to her gardening and housework. She lavished love and attention on her three grandchildren who filled her daily life with pride and joy for almost three decades.
