“ Dear Samantha and Joshua,
I am so sorry for your loss. Your mom was a wonderful woman and I know how very much she loved you both. Cheryl brought love and light to all whom were fortunate enough to know her. We will celebrate her life tomorrow and send you both thoughts of comfort at this difficult time. Always remember the good and know that Cheryl was so proud to be your mother.

*a poem i wrote called missing you, sis it's only been 4 or 5 months since you been gone; that's 126 or 3,024 hours or 181,440 minutes much to long.
i miss you sister, each and every day i wish i could hear you laugh and the things you say.
the way you'd say awkwaarrd and chit miss your friendship, your love, your humor..all of it.
you were always just a call away.
i miss the long talks we had nearly every day.
i miss your lucky stories and all your laughter;
you would do something funny and tell me after.
sister, you were my best friend and always there.
so much has transpired things i wish with you could share.
i can feel your presence and knew you were there feeling mine to every time i hear a michael jackson song i say, hi sis.
i know your living in heaven, in eternal bliss.
knowing you're with our lord and savior in heaven makes my grief and sadness feel like someday it may lessen memories of you, sis, are etched forever in my heart and mind.
a sister and best friend like you, i will never find.
you were unique and one of a kind.
you left so many friends and love ones behind.
we miss you and wish you were still here yet, having faith in our lord makes it clear that one day we will see you again.
it wasn't goodbye, instead it was until we see you then,
in heaven, you'll be there to greet us at the pearly gate.
when god calls me home i won't hesitate.
until then, i'll miss you sister, each and every single day.
please watch over your love ones, i ask and to god i pray;
you have alot of special people missing you , your son joshua denstedt, judy thoreson, teresa sollars and michael simons and your daughter samantha denstedt we will hold you forever in our hearts and prayers we love you.*
