“ A death is not the extinguishing of a light, but the putting out of the lamp because the dawn has come. Life is given to us, we earn it by giving it. Let the dead have the immortality of fame, but the living the immortality of love. Life's errors cry for the merciful beauty that can modulate their isolation into a harmony with the whole. Life, like a child, laughs, shaking its rattle of death as it runs. Mama Christina may your gentle soul rest in the bosom of the good Lord our creator. Say Amen and Amen.

“ If tears could build a stair way and memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again!!
No farewell words were spoken, no time to say good bye.
You were gone before I knew it and only God knows why.

My heart aches in sadness.

What it meant to lose you, no one can ever know.

A hallowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

RIP mami.

“ Mami you never said "I'm leaving" you, never said good bye.
You were gone before I knew and only God knows why.
A million times I need you, a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly in death I love you still, "sweetheart" as I always called you.

In my heart you hold a place that no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone,

For part of me went with you the day God took you home.

Adieu mami aka "mami Nkongho"
