“ dear sacorafas family, saying that I am sorry for your tragic loss seems inadequate. I knew your lovely daughter in encinitas. she was always so cheerful and kind. She used to come and see my musical shows at the belly up tavern. I am a professional blues singer and I gave christina copies of my cds. she was a beautiful and sweet young woman. My heart goes out to you and your family. Bad things really do happen to good people as Harold Kushner says in his book. May God bring you comfort during this horrible time.

“ Christina, The fall of 1979 was a special time for me and you. I remember hanging out together "at the lake" or the "RenCen"....shouting "Yassou!!!" at each other in the halls of LHE between classes. The memory of our time together at LHE brings a smile to my face. After high school, we went in different directions. You were off to the West Coast and I to the East Coast. Somehow we would leave things in Detroit alone for a while. We traded phone calls a few times and a couple of letters crossed the country, to bad we didn't have email...and then things faded away as we really got busy with our lives. I can remember you telling me about those terrific Santa Ana winds of California. I finally got to San Diego this year, I thought of you, but you were gone to Minnesota. I walked on the beach in Encinitas and felt the wind at my back as I stared at the sea. Now I just feel you smiling on me and a whispered Yassou drifts across the winds.

“ Dear family of Chris, Words can not express the shock I had yesterday at church when one of Chris' classmates, Leonard Thaens, from Lutheran High East came up to give me the sad news. Since my wife and I are originally from MN we followed this tragedy very carefully, but were not prepared to hear that the Chris on the bridge was the Chris that had been in a number of my classes. Sorry we can not be there in person to tell you how sad we are at this time, but look forward to seeing Chris in Heaven and finding out what she has been doing these past 27 years. In closing may I use the same words that Chris wrote in my 1980 yearbook. "Take care and God bless you."

“ To the Sacorafas family, the Kalogerson family and all Christine's friends: We send our sincere sympathy and want you to know we have been praying for you all through this horific time in your lives. Hosanna! Church in Lakeville has been praying for you also. We pray that you will receive the comfort that only God can provide. There's a book that may give some insights of what heaven is like. It's called "Ninety Minutes in Heaven." Christine is at home in heaven now, and we know she is dancing and singing with the angels.

“ Dear family of Chris, Words can not express the shock I had yesterday at church when one of Chris' classmates, Leonard Thaens, from Lutheran High East came up to give me the sad news. Since my wife and I are originally from MN we followed this tragedy very carefully, but were not prepared to hear that the Chris on the bridge was the Chris that had been in a number of my classes. Sorry we can not be there in person to tell you how sad we are at this time, but look forward to seeing Chris in Heaven and finding out what she has been doing these past 27 years. In closing may I use the same words that Chris wrote in my 1980 yearbook. "Take care and God bless you."

“ Christina, The fall of 1979 was a special time for me and you. I remember hanging out together "at the lake" or the "RenCen"....shouting "Yassou!!!" at each other in the halls of LHE between classes. The memory of our time together at LHE brings a smile to my face. After high school, we went in different directions. You were off to the West Coast and I to the East Coast. Somehow we would leave things in Detroit alone for a while. We traded phone calls a few times and a couple of letters crossed the country, to bad we didn't have email...and then things faded away as we really got busy with our lives. I can remember you telling me about those terrific Santa Ana winds of California. I finally got to San Diego this year, I thought of you, but you were gone to Minnesota. I walked on the beach in Encinitas and felt the wind at my back as I stared at the sea. Now I just feel you smiling on me and a whispered Yassou drifts across the winds.
