

Christopher J. Bormann

January 3, 2013

Bormann, Christopher James age 26, of Bloomington, graduate of Jefferson High School, died unexpectedly on January 3, 2013. He lived his life with passion and great resilience, equipped with an infectious smile and innocent sense of wonder. Chris's gifts to those who knew him were many; unwavering love for his family, a contagious sense of humor, and an endless gratitude for all who walked beside him as his life unfolded. Chris was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Leo and Toni Etzkorn. He is survived by his parents Peter and Susan, sisters Kelly and Lisa, brother Michael, his little ray of sunshine daughter Shiloh Rose, age 2, paternal grandparents Robert and Terrie Bormann and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. We release Christopher into the Lord's hands and pray for the peace and joy that heaven will bring. Mass of Christian Burial 11:00 AM Thursday, January 10 at St. Edward's Catholic Church, 9401 Nesbitt Ave S, Bloomington. Visitation at church one hour before mass. Private interment Dawn Valley Memorial Park. Memorials preferred to the family for his daughter, Shiloh's, education fund. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Dawn Valley Chapel 952-941-7686
