“ I only got to meet Chris very briefly this past November on my visit back to MN. He and my dear friend Tina started dating right before I moved away. He seemed so genuine, and I wish I had the opportunity to know him more. I know he made her the happiest she's ever been, and I'm shattered and heart broken for her and her son, and of course, all of the family and friends left behind. He will be missed dearly but treasured always. Rest in peace.

“ We've only known Chris for a few years and knew immediately that he was part of our family. He was a "go with the flow" kind of guy who enjoyed sharing stories, laughing, making people laugh, he was kind, supportive, always willing to lend a hand, an amazing boyfriend to our daughter, an amazing step-father to our grandson and a true friend to everyone that knew him. He will truly be missed and will forever stay in our hearts. We love you Chris.
