“ I am so sorry Wendy! Chris was one of a kind! It took a minute to get him to warm up to me. But I always enjoyed coming over & talking to him & seeing what reaction I would get out of him. He will be missed!

“ Oh Chris! What fun you had taking my money - bets on b-ball, baseball, and football play-off games. Yes, I did win a couple of wagers, BUT you certainly knew enough to keep me going and take my $$$!

Our visits with your mom and you were wonderful - taking in ball games, eating out and geocaching. Thank you!

Oh, please say “Hello” to brother Michael. We’re sure he’ll have a question or two for you... :)

“ Chris/Charlie was my eldest Godson💕💕 to many people he was thought to be shy, but he wasn't he was just very private which is one of the reason he and I got along so well.He hasd an awesome sense of humor and we would share jokes. For so many years He was my phone call life line when I was playing some trivia game or if I had to work and missed a football game. One of my favorite memories is at the fair one year I said Charlie let's eat some gator tail he laughed and said let's do
So off he and I went we both loved it and plotted how we could get Wendy to fry us some at home.
He loved his mother to the moon and back and he knew how blessed he was to have her.
Now he and Michel are together watching over their mom🙏🙏
