“ Chris and I met many times while each of us were out walking dogs; he was friendly, warm, and happy go lucky every single time we passed. I am so sorry for your loss, so deeply saddened. My sincerest condolences.

“ Chris will be greatly missed. Family get-togethers will not be the same without him. He had the rare ability of being able to liven up a room just by entering it. You did not even need to have a conversation with him to feel his warmth and friendliness and once you did engage in conversation, you realized almost immediately this is someone special - Someone open and honest and with a big heart. His caring and consideration of others was ever present. I was so fortunate to have known him and will miss his energy and that beautiful smile that said it all.

Dianne, Jerry, and Maria - you are in my thoughts.

Love you all, Amy.
