

Claire Hinrichs

July 1, 1925 - March 20, 2021

Claire Hinrichs (Richter) age 95, passed away March 20, 2021. Claire was preceded in death by her dearly beloved husband of 58 years, Donovan. She was the cherished mother of devoted sons Craig (Marilyn) and Terry (Kim), treasured grandmother of 6, and dearest great-grandmother of 10. She was also preceded in death by three sisters and one brother.

Claire was born in Minneapolis on July 1, 1925 (parents Earl and Ivey Richter). She competed professionally in the Roller Derby traveling throughout the country for 3-1/2 years prior to marrying Donovan in 1946. They traveled the world, always fondly saying that their travels were their education. Together they volunteered for numerous causes and organizations, in which she exceeded 22,000 volunteer hours. Claire lived 42 years in their home in the Morningside district of Edina, MN and was a member of Mount Olivet Lutheran Church.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Hammer Residences for individuals with disabilities (Wayzata, MN). Visitation Saturday, March 27 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm at the Hillside Chapel at Hillside Cemetery, 2610 19th Avenue Northeast, Minneapolis, MN 55418 with the funeral service immediately following at 2 pm.

“ Claire and Don volunteered at Hammer for many many years. I got to know them personally and enjoyed everything about them. After Don passed Claire kept up with her volunteer work. We stayed in touch after she moved from Edina and visited several times in person before Covid. Claire loved her husband, family and grand kids. We had hockey in common and she loved to share her family stories. Claire was kind and considerate, a wonderful friend of Hammer and to me.
