November 5, 1951 - December 6, 2023

Clara Mae McFarlane (Napoleon), age 72, the first-born child of Clarence Napoleon Jr. and Rose Mary Landry (Napoleon) was born on November 5, 1951, at Charity Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana and raised in Saint James Parish. She passed away on December 6, 2023, surrounded by loved ones.

Clara Mae married Raymond Lee McFarlane on November 4, 1972, and to their union two children were born: Cicely Miller (Lee) and Leah McFarlane.

Clara Mae graduated from Magnolia High School in 1969. Following graduation, she attended college at Southern University in Baton Rouge and then moved to Worthington, Minnesota to live with her aunt, Geraldine Posey (Jimmy) and cousins. While living in Worthington, Clara Mae met Raymond and the two were married. Once married, the pair moved up to the Twin Cities to start their life together, which included being blessed with two daughters. Clara Mae enjoyed a banking career which spanned many years and began at First Bank on Lake Street in Minneapolis and ended at U.S. Bank on Grand Avenue in Saint Paul.

Highly treasured memories of Clara Mae will include her beloved hobby and gift of cooking, opening her home to both welcome and raise many extended family members as her own children, often placing the needs of others above her own, and ending each year by enjoying Christmas and bringing in the new year with her Louisiana family.

She leaves to cherish her memory with her husband, Raymond McFarlane; daughter, Cicely Miller (Lee); bonus son, Everret Pedescleaux Sr. (Janae); sister, Antionette Haydel (Patrick); brother, Deveret Napoleon (Earnestine); and a host of family and friends.
