“ Momma Walker I love you, I love our daily chats, your wisdom is so rich, I'm glad I can pass it on to my children. You are QUEEN of the world. Your children are all wonderful people also. I'm so gald GOD gave me a chance to learn from you. I'm a better person and smarter parent because of you. Your spirit is always here, don't know where I would be mentally without you. You always had a smile, always. You either never cried, or you never let me see you cry. I won't let these worldly ways get me down,I keep you in my thoughts and I keep going.MUCH LOVE to Rogers/Walker families.

“ Ms Rogers (Walker) was the pillar of our community - not only the Bryant community but south Minneapolis as a whole. She had a wonderful spirit and in almost 50 years I have never heard her say an unkind word - or for that matter raise her voice; and she was a parent from the ole school days - when your neighbor could "get cha" and you would then get got at home for being gotten by a neighbor. Her spirit will continue to be a part of this universe as one of the Creators greatest angels. My heart goes out to her family.

“ Mom was a very special woman. She was definitely sent by God to bring peace, and understanding to a community that was in need of a hero. She raised all of us in the community, and taught us how to respect ourselves as well as others. If there is one person in this state that deserved to be recognized by our leaders for her lovingkindness, and support for everyone in her community, it is Mrs. Clarrisa Walker. May you find renewed strength and determination by continuing to do the work of Ms. Walker. The poor, the sick, the homeless need a guiding light. Ms. walker was and still is that light. “ April 2008 was when you came into my life. Things were starting to look dark for the family as we all knew this day would come. A true warrior is what you are. You fought until the end. Everytime i would see you, i would smile and my heart was filled with happiness for the blessing God gave me to meet you. All the stories that i heard about you being so wise, intelligent, always helping someone in need, there is no doubt you recieved your crown from God filled with precious jewels. I will always remember the joy you brought to my family when i would see you smile... I will always remember You, my grandmother.

“Rogers Walker family, when my mother Bettie told me, my heart broke to think of you loosing a mother. I love you all my sisters and brothers, I know GOD is blessing all of you, what a wonderful generation of children momma Clarissa has spreaded, not only from her womb, but thru her love for everyone. I know your hearts are heavy laden, as that is what us earthly people go thru. We know GOD has our momma wrapped in his arms and I know she has already made everyone batches of her home made cinnamon rolls. Momma Clarissa has and will always live in me and my generation of children. I would not have made it this far in my life without the caring, the sharing, the loving knowledge that momma Clarissa gave me. We will all be rejoicing with her again in heaven. I'm here for you.
