

Claudia Hernandez

August 25, 2013

A Beautiful mother, a warrior in heart that never gave up even when the odds were up against her. She fought a good fight 'till the Lord took her home to rejoice with him 'till the day we see her again to continue our love we had for each other. We will all miss her dearly. Our mother was kind, strong and loving who kept our family together and is a point that family is important.