“ I remember the first times that Gale and I met the Savina family and always having so much food. Washing the pasta off because Gale would not eat the pasta with sauce on it.

I will always remember the times we spent in Cumberland eating all those great italian meals around the large kitchen table in the old farm house then making enough room for everyone at the table in the small house next door. The food does not taste the same here although I do try to make gnochi once in a while.

The last time I talked to your dad he sounded so much like Don. We talked for a long time and reflected so many long ago moments. It is good to know that they are all together and in such a better place. Wish I could be with you all.

God bless everyone,

Hopefully we can keep in touch at least once in awhile.

Love,

Aunt Shirley
