

Clifford Myron Hill Jr.

February 19, 1927 - July 22, 2021

Hill, Clifford M.

Died peacefully at home on July 22, 2021 at age 94.

Born in Roseglen, N.D. He is preceded in death by his parents, Clifford Sr. and Gertrude Hill. Beloved wife of 73 years, Violet.

He is survived by his sister; LaVona Sullivan, two children; Paul (Sue), and Janis, grandchildren; Christopher, Leah, Shawn, Kelsey and one great grandchild, Gabe.

He proudly served in the Navy, worked at Pillsbury until retirement, enjoyed singing Barbershop music and was a long standing member at Como Park Lutheran Church. He will be deeply missed.

A gathering of family and friends will take place at the Roselawn Cemetery Chapel, 803 Larpenteur Ave. W., Roseville beginning at 1 PM, Friday, August 6, 2021. Followed by a graveside service at 2 PM.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ I enjoyed singing in barbershop chorus and quartets with Cliff for many years.

Douglas Morton - August 02, 2021 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ Cliff was a key member of the Metro Men Singers, and I enjoyed him in that role as well as generally. We often commiserated by phone as to what the pandemic did to our little group of geezers who used to sing barbershop songs to other geezers in various senior facilities. I will miss Cliff.

David Heitzman - August 01, 2021 at 12:00 AM

CC

“ He was a good man. Kind, diligent, intelligent and responsible. I will miss his positive spirit.

Connie J Cobb - July 30, 2021 at 12:00 AM