July 31, 1981 - December 21, 2024

Clint Harley Ward passed away on Saturday, December 21, 2024, at the age of 43.

Clint was born on July 31, 1981, and spent his early years in Hopkins, MN. While studying art in Chicago, he decided to pursue a career in music, ultimately becoming a successful Jungle Drum and Bass DJ, General Malice, and touring clubs around the world.

Clint's music career brought him to California, where he met his wife, Sara. They returned to Minnesota to raise their four daughters and both worked as servers in various Twin Cities restaurants until Sara's passing in 2016.

Clint was preceded in death by his father, Robert; his mother, Lisa; and his beloved wife, Sara. He is survived by his daughters: Graciela (22), Aubrey (17), Beatrice (16), and Harmony (13); his grandson, Grayson (3); his brother, Robert (Sarah); and a devoted network of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A private service will be held for family to honor Clint's memory. In lieu of flowers, donations to support his daughters can be made through a GoFundMe page at <https://gofund.me/187100af>

“ I met clint in NYC through konkrete jungle, he was dating someone other than his future wife. He was moonlighting in NYC pressing records. We hung out a few times personally, once in Washington state with his wife and daughters to give my son a present for his birthday. I will always remember him and his family fondly.
