“ The Christmas before Jeremy and I were married, my beloved kitty, Emma, passed away on December 26th. We celebrated Christmas at Clyde and Marlene's house that afternoon and I remember Clyde giving me a special angel Christmas ornament with a gold bell on it to help me remember Emma. To this day, it is still one of the most important ornaments for me to put on our Christmas tree and I will always think of him (and Emma, of course) every time I see it:) It warms my heart. I am so thankful to have been married to his nephew, Jeremy so that I could have been a part of his family and to have been lucky enough to know Clyde. What a special man!

“ The best thing about my big brother was that everyone mattered. He had a unique skill of connecting with each person in a light-hearted but meaningful manner. So many people remember how Clyde touched them and made their days brighter and lighter. This is a gift of love that he genuinely shared from his heart. Blessed be the memory of Clyde.

“ Uncle Clyde, one of a kind and in such a great way. Remember all of us Leisen kids getting excited when Marlene and Clyde were coming to visit; such an awesome pair. Clyde would always have his camera, Marlenes Bettle and a many interesting tidbits of information and some jokes to share . We were all blessed to be in your lives!

“ Clyde, you were a great brother in law. You always had the cutest shy little smile. Gene & I so enjoyed you & Marlene visiting. Gene so enjoyed the little surprise pkgs. He would get in the mail. When with you we could always see you picking up something for someone to put in a recycled envelope. God Bless & may God look after Marlene. Joan

“ I will always remember the fun my brothers and I had wondering what interesting thing you would bring with you when we saw you or what might show up in the mail in a recycled envelope 😊
So many fond memories attending Vikings games with you and Marlene and my parents, at home and on the road.
You were a kind man with a little harmless stinker in you as well. 😊
Godspeed Clyde.
You are loved and you are missed ❤️

“ Clyde. Lots of memories growing up on the farm. I remember one time you and I were up in the Haybarn stacking bales, and it was so very hot it at that time you're going for a priest. Anyhow, after working real hard, one of our stacks fell down and you swore, and I couldn't believe my ears I thought. Oh my gosh but anyhow, it was kind of funny. I also remember having the snake on the bottom of the water container. You thought that was funny yuk yuk not so.
God bless you and wrap his arms around you. You will be missed
