Cole J. Licata, age 21, passed away unexpectedly on January 6, 2020. He was preceded in death by his dad, Nicholas Licata. *Dear Cole,
I miss and love you with all my heart. I am so sad that you are gone forever. I didn't get to see you before you were wrongfully cremated ahead of schedule and I have no where to grieve for you but alone in my heart. I hope and pray that you are with your Father in Heaven and in his welcoming arms. Hang on to him tightly Nicholas, Cole needs your love and you need his. Life is just not the same with you and your Dad gone, it never will be without you both. Words cannot express how much you are missed.
I love you both so much Cole.
Love,
Grandma*

“ Tonya, my heart is filled with sorrow over the loss of Cole. It's so hard to grasp. My memories of him are mostly from his early childhood, such a curious and active little guy he was. So precious. May you find comfort in the special memories you carry forever in your heart. My prayers are with you and Riley and Mila as you go forward with a part of your hearts missing.
Love you,
Bev McLaren (Jenn's mom)
