“ I knew Colleen when I lived in Trailridge apts & she was a precious soul. She was so kind to my family & my daughters called her gramma Coke which was dear seems my mom had died 3 yrs earlier. She loved my girls & it meant so much to me because they really felt like she was gramma to them!

I often, years later would drive by the apts after moving away & hoped to see her walking to the library or out somewhere. She meant a lot to me & wished I would've kept in contact with her. Bob & Patty so sorry for your loss. I will never forget her!

God bless, Jane Morgan
