“ I’ve known Conrad since he sat behind me in study hall at Bay View high school. Then he started dating and married my best friend Chris Maynard. We had many great times together and also with Patty and Bob Meier and Esther and Jack Shakula. Our times together became fewer and farther between when Chris and Connie moved to minnesota and Patty and Bob to Pennsylvania. When we moved to Florida Chris and Connie and Patty and Bob flew down to celebrate my birthday. That’s fabulous memory I’ll never forget. Even though we couldn’t get together much in our golden years, they’ve always been in my thoughts and prayers. Love you forever,

“ I remember him with a nickname Jigger because of being a junior. I remember his mother Irene and many get togethers at his home by the railroad tracks. My husband Kenneth was his cousin.

Thank you Betty, they called him jiggers because he never sat still. He was that way until the end . Always busy. He's enjoying catching up with his departed family..
