

Constance Trombley

July 4, 2010

Age 91, of Golden Valley, MN Died on June 26, 2010 Preceded in death by parents, Pastor A.E. and Della Brinkman Frey, husband Wilbur, and daughter Ann. Survived by sons, Tom of Oakland, CA, Rick (Marie) of Spokane, WA; granddaughters Phoebe (Paul) Mulligan, Anna (Nick) Watson all of Seattle, WA; great grandchildren Jackson and Grace Mulligan and many nieces and nephews. Connie spent her early years in St. Paul, MN graduated from Central High School and attended Macalester College. She and Wil lived in California, Connecticut and the Washington DC area before retiring to Lakeland, FL. In 2001 they moved to Covenant Village in Golden Valley, MN to be closer to family. Connie was a world traveler, a lifelong learner and a docent for museums of art and historic architecture. Gravesite service at Fort Snelling National Cemetery, Mpls. at 2:30 p.m. on Friday, July 16 (meet at assembly lane #6). In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to Covenant Village, 5800 St. Croix Ave. N, Golden Valley, MN 55422 Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996