“ I can see Cort so clearly that first time we visited your home, Helen. He showed us the fruit trees and gardens, and he was happy to share his expertise as a gardener. And you gave me some iris to bring home. His quiet way of being interested in other people and his smile impressed me because it was so genuine. To you, Bill, Ellen and Rick, and all the spouses and grandchildren, David, Dalton, Beatrice and I extend our sorrow for Cort's passing. You are in our prayers.
