

Curtis Lawrence Wall

November 16, 2018

Wall, Curtis,

age 69, of North Oaks. Curt put up a courageous fight with idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis for five years. He eventually got the opportunity to receive a double lung transplant in August of this year. His recovery seemed to be going well, but after his release from the hospital, he acquired pneumonia in his new lungs, and succumbed to it on November 16, 2018. He personally chose to come off life support to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Before becoming a financial advisor with RBC Wealth Management, Curt was a scuba diver instructor and part owner of a dive shop which taught diving and led many dive trips to the Caribbean. Curt retired from RBC after 36 years in 2015. Curt enjoyed golfing, fishing, reading, traveling, time with his family at the cabin, and fellowship with his many friends. Curt was a very generous and loving man with everyone who came into his life, always taking interest in others rather than dwelling on himself. To say that Curt will be sorely missed is an understatement. Curt was preceded in death by his father, Lawrence Wall. He is survived by his wife, Sharon of 42 years; his 100-year-old mother, Millie Wall; son, Aaron (Melissa); daughter, Rachel (Hector) Perez; grandchildren, Sophia, Lydia, Alaina, Nathan, Liliana, and Isaac; brothers, Chuck (Penny), Jim, Rick (Chris), Bill (Gina); and many other relatives and countless friends. Services will be held Tuesday, November 27 at Salem Covenant Church, 2655 5th Street NW, New Brighton; memorial service at 11:00 AM, with visitation starting at 9:30 AM, and luncheon to follow. Private interment. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation, CaringBridge, or Salem Covenant Church.

“Curt was a 2nd father to me, loved the guy like he was my dad, in my eyes I didnt get to spend enough time with him and many will probably say the same. But the time that I did get to spend with him I will never forget, and will cherish forever, his entire family is my family also. I miss you already Captain Curt! And always will. I love you 2nd dad and one day we will meet again, save one more round of golf for me. Love you Wall Family

“What sweet growing up memories! Hula hoop contests, parades around the block, the neighborhood “store” or “restaurant” in Hannigan’s garage. Carefree and memorable was our life on Johnson Street. So sorry we lost touch over the years, Curt. My children met your Dad at Apache Plaza riding the Christmas train. No doubt Our Savior will give time and eternity for you to tell how He wooed you to himself, and I will long to hear it. His peace is now yours! Prayers of Intercession for your family. “The Wilson family is so sad to hear of your husband and dad's passing. Life is such a gift and he contributed to making life a happy place. We have such wonderful memories of dinners after church, skiing in Colorado and vacationing in Mexico. Our kids learned to scuba dive with Curt, and Doug is going again in January. Curt was one of those people whose great smile and infectious laugh made those around him happy. He's making others laugh and smile today in his eternal home where we'll see him again. Love to you all.

“ *Brother Curtis
You fought a hell-of-a-fight bro. and I am comforted to know you are in a better place :) There's a bunch of us that will miss the breakfasts, laughter, political bantering and of course the final, final, finals. RIP
P.S.
You took the Wall Family Golf Championship with you; I'll be coming to get it !!!

“ When my husband, Boyd, died unexpectedly at age 53 m, 26 years ago, Curt stepped right up and guided me with financial decisions that have allowed me to live comfortably all these years. He was a good friend and a good man. I will miss his smile Condolences to his family from mine

“ My condolences, love and prayers! Curt was Peter's Saturday morning breakfast pal for more than thirty years. Peter enjoyed those meetings so much, he never wanted to miss. Curt was the organizer and Peter and Dave showed up! What a blessing for all three men!
