“ Dear Mike, Sarah, Stephanie and Joe,
I am so sorry to hear of Cindy's passing. I truly know what Cindy's children are going through as I just lost my own mother five days prior. I will miss Cindy's "sparkle" smile and of course the gift God gave to her to share with us all; her voice. Every one of you will be in my prayers as I pray for strength for us all. God's peace be with you all.

“ Dear Mike, Sarah, Stephanie and Joe, I was so saddened and sorry to hear of Cindy's passing. She was a beautiful, loving person, with a truly joyful spirit. She was always so proud of her family, and loved to talk about all of you. When she was singing in the choir, her face was lit up and she was always smiling. She loved to sing. And when she couldn't make rehearsals or a service, she would call me, and tell me what was going on, and pretty much talk my ear off! Always full of compliments, always cheerful and smiling, she appeared to be a pillar of strength. The grace of God flowed through her. I will miss her, and my heart aches and reaches out to you in the midst of your pain. May God be your strength and comfort through this difficult time, and please know that I am praying for you.

“ Cindy was a lover of all of the new gadgets and technology. I would call her when I wanted to know things like how to set up my new Laptop and printer. She would come over and walk me through it all. I just got an Amazon Alexa because she got one and told me how great it was. Now every time I talk to Alexa I will think of my wonderful older sister who taught me many things throughout our lives together. She was one of a kind. I will miss her terribly!!
