“ My dear dear friend, I am going to miss you so much! We have so many wonderful memories together! You made friends wherever you went!! Your love of life and that laugh is what made everything the best!! You adopted Aaron as one of your own as you did so many kids!! You were everyone's mom! We have been through a little together good and bad but we were always there for each other and came out better for it! You will always be with me and I know something everyday will make me smile with a wonderful memory! And to think this lifelong friendship stated with me having tell you, John and guests to quiet down every weekend!! (I can hear you laughing!!) LOL!! Our hearts are broken. You are loved so much by so many! RIP my sweet one if a kind friend. ❤️

“ Cindy and I went to high school together, she was the bright light at every party and her laugh "raised the roof!" I had a lot of "firsts" with Cindy, my first cigarette (yuck!) and my first sip of scotch, to name a few. She borrowed my Roberta Rambler to take her drivers license test because her Dad, Cling owned a giant '70's car and it was difficult to parallel park, she practiced just a few times and aced the test! There was never a time that Cindy was at a loss for words, her presence here on earth will be missed. My deepest sympathy to Bernice, Tom and Cindy's family, she may be gone but her memory lives on. Love you, fun loving old friend.....

“ The world has lost yet another wonderful person and I have lost a very dear friend. Cindy and I have been friends for the better part of 50 years and I couldn't have asked for a better friend. Everywhere she'd go, she would either make a new friend or find an old one. When life got a little hard for either of us, we just knew that we had each other to turn to. She could always make me laugh, even when I thought I couldn't and I will always keep her in my heart. We have done so many things over the years and we made many friends together. She was known as “the wanna be Carol” in our circle of Carol, Carol, Carol and Cindy, and she was very proud to take on that title. We really grew up together, as if we were true sisters and she was even considered our adopted sister by my family. My children have always called her their Aunt Cindy and have loved her more than she probably knew. I don't think she really knew how much she impacted everyone she came into contact with. She was such a special person to everyone and I loved her for that. My life will never be the same without her, and I will miss her more than I can even imagine right now.

“ Oh my, where do we start. Cindy was a friend of ours for a very long time. When I was pregnant with my son Joe, I was working at Anoka tech. And she took care of my son Joe while I worked. She was always fabulous with her children and mine and many others. Our husbands were friends and we all camped and had party's and just fun, back when we all didn't have a lot of money. We had house party's and all our kids had fun. We all grow older and apart. But we still have the memory's you will be missed my friend. Love you 🥰

“ Cindy was one of my first friends. From age 4 on through high school, Cindy was part of every adventure. And if she was there, an adventure was guaranteed. From Barbie dolls and bicycles to boys and beer. Pageants on the front steps, begging to sleep out in the pop-up camper. Ice skating, swimming, shopping and oh-so-many nights "cruising" the streets of Fairfax. Her laugh rattled the rafters. Her smile was like sunshine. Everyone should grow up with a friend like Cindy. I'm so glad I did. And so sorry she's gone. Peace to Bernice and Tom, her kids and grandkids. Every year on July 4, Cindy would announce she was older than me. I had to listen to it until March, when I would catch up and be as cool as she was. This March, we'll be the same age again. After that, I'll always be older than Cindy. And it breaks my heart. Godspeed, my friend.

“ Oh how do you summarize a lifetime of memories with someone so special as Cindy. She was my honorary Auntie, our families have been friends since way before I was born. I remember spending summers with them when I was young and loving every minute of it especially because she let us have anything we wanted out of the fun food drawer lol. I enjoyed being the first kid awake and sneaking out to sit with her while she drank her coffee and read her book. I remember all the camping trips, cook outs, birthdays, the list goes on. As an adult, I got to enjoy her as a friend and an honorary Great Auntie to my kids. She attended many of their birthday parties, and celebrations along with mine. We would go to comedy shows, and dinners, we would have her over to be a judge in our crazy cooking challenges and most recently I talked her into participating in a murder mystery for my mom Carol's birthday. She had a laugh and voice that would fill a room, she left a positive imprint on everyone she met. She was and is an unforgettable beautiful soul and I will miss her terribly, especially the early morning calls on my birthday singing Happy birthday to me, what I wouldn't give for just one more.
