

Cyril Bernard "C.B." Christensen

September 10, 2007

Christensen, Cyril Bernard "C.B." of Edina. Born March 30, 1925 in Minot, ND and went home to heaven on September 8, 2007. Survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Gloria "Butch" Christensen; sons, Charles and Norman; daughter-in-law, Tina; sister, Zella; grandchildren, Sarah and Bill; great grandson, Grayson; and many other relatives, co-workers and friends. After graduating from high school, C.B. joined the Army Corp of Engineers on November 19, 1943 and entered WWII, serving his country in the Asiatic Pacific Theater and on the island of Okinawa. After the war, C.B. attended North Dakota State University where he met his wife Gloria and received his Civil Engineering degree in 1950. He worked for Honeywell as a staff engineer for over 30 years and was promoted to the status of an Engineering Fellow on May 1, 1987. After retiring he worked another 10 years with his friend Glenn Baillie at Baillie Sales and Engineering. C.B. liked to play golf and bridge and enjoyed music and theater. He liked to reminisce about his army days and enjoyed his career. He was a Christian and a committed member of Westwood Lutheran Church, but above all, he loved his family. He is loved and appreciated and will be dearly missed. Interment Arthur Cemetery, Arthur, ND.
