“ Every year at State Fair time the Smith family would pile in the car and on the way we would stop in and see Aunt Dagny and Uncle Bud. I remember Dagny's hugs and yummy cookies. And always that wonderful smile. My sympathies to all.

“ Aunt Dagne was such a sweet person to me always. I have fond memories of the dancing costumes and barbie doll clothes she made, she was a beautiful seamstress. With her busy life raising her large family, moving frequently she always took time for me. She was good to my mom when her husband died. She will be greatly missed. My condolence to the entire Baer family.

“ Grandma was the type of Grandma that would let you learn the lessons, but be there to console you and then bake your favorite cookies! I never heard her say a negative word. Everything in the house was always perfect. I spent a week or so a few summers of my childhood with Grandma and Grandpa - I will always cherish those memories. Love you Grandma.

“ Grandma was a pure and sweet soul. She was the only 90 some year old person I know to walk up and down flights of stairs when there was an elevator available. :) She will be missed!!
