

D. Curtis Larson Jr.

December 25, 1952 - August 18, 2022

D. Curtis Larson

Larson, D. Curtis, age 69, went home to meet his Lord Jesus and other loved ones on August 18, 2022, at his home in Minneapolis after a year-long battle with pancreatic cancer. Curt was born on Christmas in 1952 in Minneapolis, he graduated from Washburn High School and then went on to trade school to be an electrician. He was a proud member of IBEW Local 292 in spite of his career being cut short by injury. When he went on to work as an estimator/project manager his proudest accomplishment was managing the electrical install on the huge MLAC cavern under the Anderson Library on the U of M campus. Curt loved his family deeply and was the instigator of much laughter and many pithy sayings that have stood the test of time. Curt was preceded in death by his parents Dale and Mary Jane Larson. Curt is survived by his wife of 48 years Trish, children Dale (Brenda) Larson, Becky (Parnell) Mahoney, and Joelle (Chris) Sanny. Grandchildren Sam, Ellie, Libby, Eden, Asher, Elias, Tessa, Alma, Jasper, Lucas, Sylvie and Feran, and by sisters Valerie (Tom) Muths, and Jan Larson.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 AM on Tuesday, August 23, at Trinity Lutheran Church of Minnehaha Falls, 5212 41st Ave. S. Minneapolis, 55417 with visitation 1 hour prior to the service at the church. The service will also be livestreamed by the church. Memorials preferred to Camp Patmos or Trinity Lutheran Church of Minnehaha Falls.

“ Curt was one of the first examples of a dad (outside my own) who appreciated his kids' friends...their presence, their personhood, their perspectives, their craziness. He accepted us as family from the very start. It was easy to be in his home, and we always felt valued. His life, his home, his time, it was never about him. The small time of his impact on me directly, and the much longer time of impact indirectly through his awesome kids, sticks with me as I am nearly at the stage of life he was when we met. I hope to welcome kids into my home as effortlessly and unconditionally as he did. All my love to the Larson family, whom I've always considered to be my own extended family. “ Jan, you have my sincere prayers in the wake of Curt's loss. It's been many years since we've spoken but I have followed you through our mutual friend. This grief will be brief and we will all rejoin together in our eternal home - good news for Curt and all who hold faith in Christ! Take care, sister!
