

Dale Offerman

November 17, 2008

Offerman, Dale L. 67, of Minneapolis, passed away peacefully on November 15, 2008 surrounded by family. A lifelong clock collector, for the past three years he owned the Antique Clock Shop and was a member of several professional organizations including the National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors and MN Watchmakers Guild. Prior to that Dale had a distinguished career in the mental health field. He was Assistant Administrator of Faribault Regional Center in 1985; CEO/Program Director at Cambridge State Hospital 1966-1974. Among his many prestigious accolades were Awards of Appreciation from the State of MN, Governor Al Quie, the Department of Public Welfare, and the Otter Tail County Association, where Dale set up the Fergus Falls Mental Retardation Center. His passions included golf, running, cross-country skiing, biking, the Vikings and Gophers, his alma mater (U of M Class of '64). He also enjoyed spending time at his cabin and on the road in his beloved MG & Firebird. Dale is preceded in death by his parents, Alvin and Geneva. He is survived by his partner, Lois Zimmerman; her children, Brenda, Scott, Mona and grandson, Myles; his brothers, Dave (Joyce), Dean (Noreen); his daughter, Mischelle (Joe); former wife, Lonnie (Rich); and many nieces and nephews and numerous friends and extended family. The family would like to thank the Fairview Hospital Hospice for all of their help and support. Memorials preferred to Fairview Home Care and Hospice, 2450 26th Ave. S., Minneapolis 55455. Donations may be made online at www.fairview.org/foundation. Interment Lakewood Cemetery. Funeral
