“ I adored you all of your life my dear brother. We were so lucky to have such loving parents and now you are with them again. You had the same funny sense of humor that our mother did and you were kind to everyone just like our father.

You also have a wonderful family that loved you and took care of your needs through the cancer battle and in the end of your life. You were a faithful husband and good provider to Judi. She loved you very much.

I can't think of one person who did not like you. I hope there's horse racking, fishing and hunting where you are now. Also, must include the many dogs that you had throughout your life. I would name them but honestly I can't remember them all.

Love you!
