

Dallas Harold Kunz

November 4, 1933 - September 25, 2022

Dallas Harold Kunz, originally from Bowdon, ND, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Sunday, September 25, 2022 at the age of 88. Dallas was preceded in death by his wife and the love of his life, Betty Kunz; his parents, James Kunz and Ida Anderson; his siblings, Margie Meyers, Jimmy Kunz, Dixie Brown, Gary Kunz, Gloria Kunz and Karen Kunz.

Dallas was born on November 4, 1933 near Bowdon, ND. He was a hard-working farmer, mechanic, wood worker, Christmas tree farmer, volunteer fireman/paramedic, strudel cook and a restorer of antique tractors and cars. He never stopped walking and "working" until the day he died. He loved to help and serve others in any way possible. He was a kind, faithful servant of Christ who made everyone feel like they were important and cherished.

His children, Deanne and Kristi, cared for him daily as he was in independent living and memory care at Presbyterian Homes Eagle Crest in Roseville, MN for the last two years.

Dallas is survived by his two daughters, Deanne (Tom ) McLellan and Kristi (Dave) Parkin. Dallas has 4 grandchildren whom he loved deeply, Abby (Kyle) Bowman, Calli (Miguel) Holguin, Kelsey Parkin and Daniel Parkin. Dallas has one treasured great grandchild, Austin Bowman.

Well done, thou good and faithful servant.

Any memorials received will be given to the Bowdon community where he served as volunteer fire chief of the Bowdon Fire & Ambulance station and mayor of Bowdon in years past.

A brief memorial service will be held at 3:00 pm followed by a reception on Sunday, October 9 at Rice Lake Bible Chapel at 8801 Rice Lake Road, Maple Grove, MN 55369.

Memorials preferred instead of flowers.

A livestream of Dallas' service will be streamed via Zoom. Please use the information below to access the Zoom stream:

“ We would like to extend our sympathy to the family of Dallas. It was always a pleasure when ever we would get together with Dallas and Betty (Betty was my first cousin) and have a good visit. Dallas was a person who very down to earth type of individual. Dallas was very strong in his Christen faith. He will be missed by family and friends.
