DANA TOSO

Following a very private journey with cancer, Dana Toso of Minneapolis passed away peacefully under hospice care at home on June 27, 2025, at the age of 73. Originally born in Minneapolis, Dana was the youngest of 4 brothers all born in the span of 4 years, who went on to live all over the country following their dad's work. Dana went on to 4 different high schools in 4 different states. After graduating from the University of North Dakota, the same school that his dad attended, Dana returned to Minneapolis where he applied his knowledge and sense of design into his decades working for Target. Dana enjoyed his retirement working with Bryan on their home in Minneapolis and tending to their antique store in Lake City, MN, as well as spending time and spreading joy with family and friends.

Dana is survived by his loving husband of 25 years, Bryan Baumann; brothers Jerry (Paulette) Toso of Mesquit NV, Mark (Nancy) Toso of Boston MA, Brad (Kay) Toso of Woodbury MN; nephews Jonathan (Marsha Dettloff), Matthew, Daniel (Sylvia Choi), Sam (Jenna), Josh (Sara), Eric (Rebecca); great-nieces Alexandra, Brady, Charleston, Hannah, Leah; and great-nephew Kayden. Preceded in death by parents Alvern and Verna Toso.

“ Dana’s mom and my mom were from the same home town in North Dakota . When the Tosos moved to the same neighborhood as my family we all saw quite a bit of each other. His brother even spent a summer working on my grandparents farm. I’ve often wondered about Dana as he was always such a nice guy. I thought about him this morning and a google search revealed his obituary. I’m sad the we never reconnected , but glad to see from the photos that he had a happy life. My condolences to all who loved him,
