

Dana Dee Turnquist

November 15, 1943 - September 26, 2019

Turnquist, Dana D. Age 75, passed away September 26, 2019. Preceded in death by parents Robert (Bob) and Valerie (June) Vranish and her brother Rick. Dana was a long-time office administrator and spent the last part of her career as the parish secretary at Minnetonka Lutheran. She and her husband, Ken, spent countless hours at the games and concerts of their sons and grandchildren. Dana had a flair for decorating that she shared through volunteering at church and her silk flower-arranging business. She hosted numerous parties during their days in the US Army all the way through Christmas parties at their townhouse. In the end, Dana's body gave out, but her spirit lives on in the stories that will be told and retold in the months and years ahead. Survived by husband, Ken; sons Chris (Peg) and Brett (Lisa); grandchildren Mandi (Nick) Bertness, Jason (Courtney), Emma and Connor; and great-grand-daughter Ava; sister-in-law Marianne Vranish; brothers Peter Vranish and Bruce (Colleen) Vranish; and sister Bonnie (Howard) Hartman; several nieces and nephews; and a whole lot of cousins. Funeral service on Wednesday, October 2nd at 11 AM at Bethlehem Lutheran Church Minnetonka Campus at 16023 Minnetonka Blvd. Visitation one hour prior to the service. Interment will be scheduled at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Memorials are preferred to St. Therese of New Hope.
