

Mr. Daniel Oliver Evans

November 4, 1926 - March 4, 2019

Evans, Daniel Oliver passed away March 4th at age 92. He was a good, kind, generous, hardworking and modest man. Raised in Chicago by loving parents, he joined the Army Air Corps out of high school. At the end of WWII, he went to North Park College and then graduated from Northwestern University with a business degree. Worked in marketing for IBM for over 35 years in Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus, and Minneapolis. Was a past member of Rotary International and Lake Harriet UM Church. Met spouse, Marian, at IBM Chicago and they raised four children together. As empty nesters/snowbirds, they enjoyed grandkids and traveled, including annual trips to Tucson to play golf. Dan was known for his early embracing of wellness as a jogger in the 1970s. He was a gentleman and a scholar. Preceded in death by wife, Marian, and sister, Mary. Survived by children Kerry Evans (Terry), Scott Evans, Dana Evans, Jenny Greiling (Jim); and "adopted" daughter Barbara Lafferty; grandchildren Brian Greiling, Matthew Greiling, Aaron Greiling, Amy Greiling, Dan Evans, Sarah Evans, Tom Evans, Mike Evans, Sam Evans, Ellie Garberich, and several great-grandchildren. Many thanks to the people who helped him every day. Memorials preferred to the Alzheimer's Association. Funeral service 1pm Saturday, March 16th with visitation at 12:30pm at: Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996 West 50th St & Hwy 100
