

Daniel Joseph Foley

March 23, 1946 - August 28, 2024

passed away peacefully on August 28th, 2024, at the age of 78. Born in Milwaukee, WI, Dan grew up in the areas of Winona, MN and La Crosse, WI of which he shared many fond memories with his family. Dan was a graduate of Aquinas High School and The University of Wisconsin, La Crosse. Dan's time in Wisconsin made him a lifelong Green Bay Packer fan. After working several years in Washington, DC, he moved to Eden Prairie, Minnesota where he and Corrine raised their family.

He was an incredibly loyal friend and had a core group of friends he continued to see throughout his years. Dan loved nothing more than to spend time with his family, talk to his sister and spend time with his pets. He especially enjoyed time with his grandchildren. He always lit up with happiness when they were around.

Dan was preceded in death by his parents, Daniel and Zita Foley and his infant brother Daniel. He's survived by his wife of 56 years, Corrine; his sister Mary (Tom) Sadler; children Candace Foley; Denise (Jim) Van Asten; Daniel (Mayumi) Foley, Roy (Lindsay) Foley. Grandchildren, Liam Van Asten, Keagan Van Asten and Wren Foley.

Dan was a loving husband, father and grandfather. We consider ourselves lucky to have had him in our lives.

Friends and extended family are invited to attend a memorial service Friday, September 6, 2024, at Washburn-McReavy Eden Prairie Chapel, 7625 Mitchell Road, Eden Prairie. Review begins at 10:00am, Memorial Prayer Service begins at 11:00am with lunch to follow.
