

Daniel Scott Halverson

January 28, 2018

Daniel Scott Halverson age 49, of Crystal Minnesota died in the early morning hours of January 28th, 2018 surrounded by his loved ones. Daniel was born at Cedar Riverside in Minneapolis, MN on August 15th, 1968. He attended Cooper High School before beginning work in the construction business- specifically STUCCO. With a wildly outrageous love of fishing, you could usually find Dan casting a line into the water with his buddies. If he wasn't reeling in a monster fish, he also enjoyed playing cards, gambling and spending time with his family. Daniel is survived by his father's Arthur Halverson (Shelley) and David Erickson; children Danielle Halverson (27), Jacob Halverson (26), Ally Halverson (25), and Tyler Halverson (24); Siblings Sonia Koehler (Jesse), Tamra Halverson, Melissa Halverson; Nieces and Nephews Nathan (20), Gavin (15), Mireya (11), and Adan (9); and many more friends and loved ones. Dan was preceded in death by his sister, Jana Halverson, and his mother, Roxanne Halverson.
