“ I worked with Dan for almost 20 years while I was employed by a Faribault hospital. He was the most honest and trusted insurance rep that I ever worked with in my career. He would make the drive from Mpls to Faribault for our meetings, and we would ALWAYS have lunch at the Lavender Inn before he headed back to Mpls. I continued to visit with him after I left the hospital in 2000, and he continued share a great smile and friendly demeanor. A great friend. My sympathy to all of the Militzer family members.

“ I worked with Dan some years ago. He was the insurance broker for the company I worked for. Dan was a great guy, always upbeat and smiling. Gods speed Dan.
