“ I went to medical school with Dan. He always carried so much joy and laughter with him wherever he went. I don't have a single memory of him of being unkind, ignorant or ill-tempered, because he never was. He had unparalleled positivity, determination, humility and I was very fortunate to have known him. This is such a terrible loss. My heart and deepest sympathies goes out to the Schnobrich family.

“ Thank you for the wonderful memorial service for Dan. For a time, Dan was part of my close work family and helped in small ways make every day in a tough environment brighter and lighter and more focused on the good. He also went through some life transitions at the same time...literally. Dan and Rachel got married on the same day at the same time as me and Michael. Our first and last babies were born within months of each other, but he and Rachel had an extra one in the middle. Even after Dan and I stopped working together every day, I've loved knowing that he and his beautiful family were in the world, that he was experiencing the joys of parenting while continuing to serve patients and the medical community. I will continue to hold his family in my heart and thoughts over the coming years.

“ Dan, my birthday buddy, what a wonderful person taken from us far too soon. I hope his family knows the impact he made on us all in such a short time. I'll miss the thoughtful, deep discussions in the workroom where he always brought his whole self.

“ I worked with Dan briefly as a brand new, terrified medicine intern in 2015. He had a calm about him that was so comforting and something that I really admired. I remember thinking how I wanted to be just like him when I became an attending. I also remember his emotions when Vikings games were on in the hospital. He was so much fun to be around. I, like so many others, are in shock with his unexpected passing. He leaves a huge void in the medicine community, and I pray for his family during this unimaginable time. May he Rest In Peace.

“ Don't have the words to convey the sadness I feel, wish I was a better writer so I could say something more comforting and supportive.

I don't think I could even draw anything that would be helpful. :(

Just know we will miss Dan very much and we will always have wonderful memories.

It was a privilege to know him and wish we could all be there, but know we send all our love

Love you Ray-ray

“ Just last week I had Dan serve as my palliative care consultant, to help navigate a family make a difficult end of life decision. Dan handled it with his usual grace, care, and sense of humor. The family was in love with Dan, they wanted Dan to be their outpatient palliative care doctor. This was a very typical patient interaction for him -- his patients loved him. As a student and later a colleague of Dan, I can say that his students and colleagues also loved him. I interacted with Dan a lot over the last two years and there was a time or two when we disagreed, but never did I walk away from a conversation with Dan not feeling better than the beginning of the conversation. He just had that way with people -- made people feel important, feel heard, and close. Dan was a special person and he will be missed.

“ I was so devastated to hear the news of Dan's passing this past week. Dan was one of the first attendings I met at residency orientation in 2014. He taught a lot of our bedside ultrasound course and I rotated with him a few times on service. I feel honored to have known him. A great educator, kind human, and wonderful physician. Such a loss to the University of Minnesota and Twin Cities medical community. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ Dr. Schnobrich was my consultant atleast a few times during residency. He was the nicest, great clinician, amazing teacher and a wonderful human. He was so positive and uplifting. I can't believe he is no more. It's a great loss to medical community and the world. He taught us a lot of things about medicine! His family will be in my thoughts and prayers. May his soul Rest In Peace.
