“ Thinking of the great summertime memories of watching baseball with Danielle and her family at Sand Creek and Wintercrest Parks. We know the common bond of baseball that brings people from many different backgrounds together in our city. Danielle was a big part of that and will be missed by us all.

“ I will never forget Danielle with her beautiful smile and caring, loving heart. I will never forget the joy in her eyes when she spoke of her family. She was so happy when she talked about her parents and all that they meant to her. Her children were her pride and joy. Thinking of all of you with love today, and in the months / years ahead.
