

Danny Wong

October 29, 2013

Danny Wong was born in China in 1948. When he was 4-years-old, he was visiting Hong Kong and the Cultural Revolution reached its height, preventing Danny from returning to China. As luck would have it, though, he ended up meeting the love of his life, Suzanna, at a birthday party. After a long courtship, he followed her to San Francisco where they were wed in Golden Gate Park on March 25, 1979, just in time for the cherry blossoms. Danny and Suzanna moved to Minnesota, where they welcomed their daughter, Jeanette, and son, Victor.

As an amazing husband, father, brother, friend and uncle, Danny was loved for his good humor and selflessness. Danny was always looking out for others and making sure he did everything in his power to promote the well-being of the people he cared for.

Danny was truly a remarkable man. Danny is survived by his wife, daughter, son, son-in-law, Michael, and his grandson.

May he rest in peace, waiting to reunite with all of us to share more fishing stories and laughter, and most importantly, constructive feedback on your failed culinary endeavors.
