“ I just wanted to share that I never really knew Darrell as a young person. He was older and they lived so far away. We only saw them when family would gather at uncle Harry's. But later as my mom grew older he was in touch with her occasionally and she loved it. And then we got to visit as cousins. I really wanted to make it to the service. As I write this it is probably not going to happen. I'm always available if anyone wants to reach out to extended family. I also have a lot of information/ genealogy for the sawyers. My thoughts are with you at this time.
