“ I found a lifelong friend in Darwin in 1977 when I met him working at the New Brighton Perkins. There was lots of time spent in the Hauser basement - very similar to that 70's show! Darwin loved his music and cars and I will think of him often when I hear REO Speedwagon songs and many others he loved, or see a vintage RX7 on the roads. He loved life and was a fighter to the end. We've lost a great man but gained an angel on our shoulders. I'm sure "Momma Lois" greeted him at the Pearly Gates.....

My love to the family during this difficult time!
